GALS GUIDE ANTHOLOGY 2024

THEME: Nourish

Gal's Guide seeks prose or poetry about nourishment. Does a certain food nourish you? What else is necessary for your growth? What helps sustain your health? What fosters a positive state of mind? What is a feeling or belief that you have cultivated that kept you going? Who or what is nourishing to you?

This is the third annual Gal's Guide Anthology. Previous themes have been Women's History and Journey.

SELECTION PROCEDURE:

Stories/poems will be chosen by a jury containing board members of Gal's Guide and an impartial judge from the literary world.

Stories/poems picked for the anthology will be ones that best fit the theme of "nourish," follows the submission specs and are turned in on or before the deadline.

Writer's may submit as many pieces as they like, however, a maximum of three (3) pieces per author will be chosen by the judges for publication in the 2024 anthology.

RIGHTS:

Writers will grant rights to Gal's Guide to the Galaxy from the time of acceptance to publication (approx. January 2024-March 2024). At time of publication, all rights will revert back to the writer.

PRIZES:

The Gal's Guide Anthology will be available in printed and digital formats. Authors picked for the anthology will receive one (1) physical copy of the book.

Three (3) winners will be chosen by the judges.

All published entries will also be eligible for a People's Choice Award to be determined by online vote.
